O'Neill Brothers Record with Regis

April 1, 2011

In March, Tim O'Neill along with his mom, Kathy O'Neill, flew to New York to the famed music studio, Avatar to accompany Regis singing the Irish song, "Too-Rah-Loo-Rah-Loo-Rah", along with Minneapolis-based cellist, Rebecca Arons. Arons has performed with Regis many times during the past two years.

(L to R) Rebecca Arons, Regis Philbin, Kathy and Tim O'Neill.

About The O'Neill Brothers:

Tim (ND '94) and Ryan (ND '97) are the nationally known piano duo 'The O'Neill Brothers' from New Prague, MN that are best known on Notre Dame's campus for producing ND's #1 selling CD, 'Here Come the Irish'. They have sold over 10 million copies of their 35 different piano CDs and have toured with pop superstar, Deborah Gibson, as well as Katie McMahon, the original voice of Riverdance. The O'Neill Brothers have provided music for NBC, CBS, ESPN, PBS, and HBO TV and their most recent PBS concert special, "Piano for Someone You Love," was nominated for an Emmy award. Several of their CDs have hit the Billboard charts.
